

STICKNEY TOWNSHIP OFFICE ON AGING

Community

LSV Senior Center
7745 S.
Leamington
Burbank

Friday
Nov. 16
9:30 am to 12 p.m.

Fair

Local organizations and businesses will be available to answer questions and distribute information about many health, caregiver and safety topics including healthy eating, immunizations, Medicare, senior services, and crime prevention.

Various screenings will be offered including blood pressure checks, cholesterol and diabetic screenings.

Slip-Proof Safety, Inc. will provide a presentation on “Aging in Place is About the Journey: Activities of Daily Living”

For more information about the Community Fair contact Stickney Township Office on Aging at (708) 636-8850.

ABOUT STICKNEY TOWNSHIP OFFICE ON AGING (STOA)

As a division of the Township of Stickney, the Office on Aging is a designated Case Coordination Unit for the State of Illinois. STOA offers a number of programs to serve seniors, their families and caregivers such as Aging and Disability Resource Center, Family Caregiver Support programs, Comprehensive Care Coordination, Nutrition, Information and Assistance and Adult Protective Services.

STOA serves elders, their families and caregivers in Burbank, Stickney and Forest View, IL as well as two unincorporated areas of Cook County – Central Stickney and Nottingham Park.